Northampton man slashed in incident

Published Date: 24 January 2007

A NORTHAMPTON man suffered a slash wound to his neck during an attempted robbery in Alliston Gardens in Semilong between 6.30am and 7am today.

A police spokesman said the injury was not believed to be serious. The 36-year-old victim received stitches at Northampton General Hospital and was then discharged. Nothing was stolen in the incident.

Police cordoned off an area between Alliston Gardens and Semilong Road for around five hours, until just after noon.

The spokesman said the offender was a white man in his mid to late 40s, and wore a black hat, black jacket and jeans. He went off along Semilong Road past the Co-op.

Lisa Kilgannon, who lives nearby on Semilong Road, said: "I did not hear or see anything. But someone came over and told us he had heard someone screaming."

Witnesses, or anyone with any information, are asked to contact Northamptonshire Police on 08453 700700 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.
